Privacy policy

TingshaAudio processes personal data in accordance with this privacy statement. For further information, questions or comments about our privacy policy, please visit TingshaAudio@gmail.com.

Processing purposes

TingshaAudio collects and processes customers' personal data for customer and order management (e.g. customer administration, follow-up of orders/deliveries, invoicing, solvency monitoring, profiling and sending marketing and personalised advertising).

Legal basis(s) of the processing

Personal data is processed on the basis of Article 6.1. necessary for the protection of our legitimate interest to conduct business]] of the General Data Protection Regulation.

Insofar as the processing of personal data takes place on the basis of Article 6.1. a) (consent), the customer has the right to withdraw the consent given at any time].

Transfer to third parties

If this is necessary for the realisation of the intended purposes, the client's personal data will be shared with other companies (of TingshaAudio group) within the European Economic Area that are directly or indirectly affiliated with TingshaAudio or with any other partner of TingshaAudio; TingshaAudio guarantees that these recipients will take the necessary technical and organisational measures to protect personal data.

Storage period

Personal data processed for customer management purposes will be retained for the period necessary to comply with legal requirements (e.g. in the field of accounting).

Right of access, rectification, erasure, restriction, objection and portability of personal data

The customer has the right to inspect his personal data at all times and can correct them (or have them corrected) if they are incorrect or incomplete, have them removed, have them restricted and object to the processing of personal data concerning him on the basis of article 6.1 (e) or (f), including profiling on the basis of those provisions.

In addition, the customer has the right to obtain a copy (in a structured, common and machine-readable form) of his personal data and to have the personal data forwarded to another company.

In order to exercise the aforementioned rights, the customer is asked to:

- himself/herself modify the settings of his/her customer account; and/or
- send an e-mail to the following e-mail address: TingshaAudio@gmail.com

Direct Marketing

The customer has the right to object, free of charge, to any processing of his personal data for the purposes of direct marketing.

Complaint

The Client has the right to lodge a complaint with the Commission for the Protection of Privacy (rue de la Vie Privée de la République de la République 35, 1000 Brussels - commission@privacycommission.be).

The use of "cookies".

During a visit to the site, "cookies" may be placed on your computer's hard drive. A cookie is a text file that is placed by a website's server in your computer's browser or on your mobile device when you consult a website. Cookies cannot be used to identify individuals; a cookie can only identify a machine.

Indicate what kind of cookies are used and for what purpose:

First party cookies are technical cookies that are used by the site visited and that aim to make the site function optimally. Example: settings made by the user during previous visits to the site, or still: a pre-filled form with data that the user has made during previous visits.

Third Party cookies are cookies that do not originate from the site itself, but from third parties, such as a marketing or advertising plug-in. For example, cookies from Facebook or Google Analytics. Such cookies require the prior consent of the site visitor - this can be done via a bar at the bottom or at the top of the website, with reference to this policy, which however does not prevent further surfing on the website).

You can set your internet browser in such a way that cookies are not accepted, that you receive a warning when a cookie is installed or that the cookies are subsequently removed from your hard disk. You can do this via the settings of your browser (via the help function). Keep in mind that certain graphical elements may not appear correctly, or that you will not be able to use certain applications.

By using our website, you agree to our use of cookies.

Google analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses "cookies", which are text files placed on your computer, to help the website analyze how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not combine your IP address with any other data held by Google. You can refuse the use of cookies by selecting the appropriate settings in your browser. Please note, however, that in this case you may not be able to use all the features of this website. By using this website, you consent to the processing of data about you by Google in the manner and for the purposes set out above.
